TELEGRAPHIC GREAT FIRE AT OTTAWA

UNIVERSITY BURNED TO THE GROUND.

A Domestic Is Feared to Have Been Burned Alive—Transportation Commission to Meet Next Week.

(Bulletin Special Dispatch.)

Ottawa, Dec. 2.—The Ottawa university was totally destroyed by fire this morning. The loss is estimated at from $250,000 to $300,000. There is about $200,000 insurance. Two priests, Rev. Fathers Fulham and Boyon, are seriously injured. One of the students named Collin, of St.
Boniface, jumped from the fifth storey into a net, with glasses on, and escaped with only a few flesh wounds on the face.

It is feared that a domestic named Davis has perished in the university fire to-day. She is missing.

The remains of Mr. Cassy, ex-M.
P., were forwarded to-night to Singing. All the ministers attended the funeral.

The transportation commission is expected to meet at Ottawa next week.

CARTRIDGE EXPLODED

Serious Accident at Beaver Hills Phillip Thomas Struck in the Side by a Bullet.

(Bulletin Special Dispatch.)

Fort Saskatchewan, Dec. 3.—A very painful and serious accident happened to Phillip Thomas at Beaver Hills yesterday morning. While he was loading a cartridge it seems the bullet struck and he was endeavoring to shove it down, when the cartridge exploded, the ball entering his left side just above his heart, and lodging under his collar bone. He was brought into the Fort for medical treatment.

FORT SASKATCHEWAN

Lumber For Immigration Hall at British Colony. Good Wheat at the Fort.

(Bulletin Special Dispatch.)

Fort Saskatchewan, Dec. 3.—Fifteen teams left here this morning, accompanied by immigration Agent Sutter, for down the river. They are going to freight the materials for the immigration building at Lloydminster, which left Edmonton some weeks ago by river, but owing to the river freezing up, it was impossible to get through with it.

Shera and Company are well established in their new store on Government street.

Mr. Carmichael has rented and is now occupying the store lately vacated by Shera and Company.

J. A. Whitson has leased the barn next to the Queens hotel and has moved his livery outfit and is now open for business at that stand.

The Masons met in the new hall on Government street last Tuesday night.

Major Hubbell arrived here from the Vermilion country on Tuesday and left for Edmonton on yesterday's stage.

Rev. John McDougall will occupy the pulpit in the Methodist church here on Sunday next, morning and evening. He also lectures in the same building on Monday evening.

Rev. Mr. Aldridge had the misfortune to lose one of his horses from inflammation this week.

Real estate has taken a more again.
Several thousand dollars worth changed hands this week.

Shera and Company are receiving a daily average of five hundred bushels of good wheat at their mill here.
Prices for all products are running high.

LOCAL

—Train left Red Deer on time.

—J. E. Lundy, of Ross Bros. Limited, has taken the management of J.
A. Stovel's hardware establishment.

—Until further notice the morning train on the E. Y. & P. railway will leave for Strathcona at 7:45 instead of 7:30 as heretofore.

—The National Stock Company played David Garrick in Robertson Hall last night to a fair house. Considerable attractions kept many away.
The presentation of the play was thoroughly enjoyed, all of the players acquiring themselves exceedingly well. David Garrick was generally admired to be the best play the company has yet put on here and was far in advance of the usual style of play seen in Edmonton. The company appear to be giving better plays each night they remain in the city.

EDMONTON WINS

Edmonton defeated Strathcona last night at hockey by a score of 8 to 1.
The game was exciting throughout and a great crowd witnessed the match. Poor fights at Edmonton's goal gave Strathcona the advantage in the first half which closed 5 to 2 in Strathcona's favor. Edmonton pulled itself together and won out by a final score of eight to seven. A full report of the match will appear in to-morrow's paper.

You will find some of the nicest things in childrens at this store over brought into Edmonton. They are pieces of art furniture. They seem to take the popular fancy, and like the cut they are going. We have a very heavy stock of furniture

ALBERTA COLLEGE

Formally Opened Last Night Under Very Auspicious Circumstances in New Masonic Building.

The Alberta College, Edmonton, was opened last night under the most auspicious circumstances. Edmonton and Strathcona sent their very best in large numbers to assist in launching Alberta College on a career of prosperity and success. The reception was held in the upper room of the new Masonic building on Second street. The hall was tastefully decorated with streamers of purple and yellow, the college colors. The gathering was representative of the best people of both towns and the formal opening of the college was a brilliant success.

The guests were received at the entrance of the hall by a committee consisting of the board of management, the faculty, and their wives. A pleasant hour was spent in conversation.
J. T. Taylor, who acted as chairman, called the gathering to order with a few introductory remarks. He was gratified with the progress that Alberta college had already made, and was satisfied that it was here to stay. A piano solo, Spring's Whis-perings, by V. W. Barfoot, was exceedingly good, and as an opening number, augured well for the excellence of the remaining part of the program. Mayor short followed with an excellent address. Of what use is education if we cannot express ourselves of its opportunities. When Alberta College was first mooted he thought it was a splendid thing, that it should be established; and in the historic town of Edmonton. If we of the Northwest Territories do not follow the guiding hand of high inteligence, how shall we come to our heritage? The earliest Protestant missionaries in Edmonton were of the Methodist church. They deserve great credit, for they had done much for this district, and Edmonton should now raise high the standard of intellectual attainment. The college was to be non-sectarian, and only under the management of the Methodist church. Edmonton stands for the farther Northwest, commercially and intellectually, as Toronto stands for Ontario. Our intellectual development must keep pace with our material growth. He welcomed Alberta College to Edmonton.

LIGHTING CHANGES

The Macleod Gazette was the third newspaper in the Territories. It was started as an exponent of Conservative views. It continued as such until a few months ago. It then announced its conversion to Liberal principles and now it has again become Conservative. In its issue of November 20th it explains its lighting changes. A new proprietor had bought the paper. He was hard up. He was sure to secure a loan on condition that he supported Liberalism. He did not live up to his agreement. He has lately been able to make new financial arrangements, by which he is relieved altogether from that arrangement. Apparently on condition of insulating himself from the Liberalism, he was sold out to the Liberals for a price. He has now sold out to the Conservatives for a higher price. In view of this confession, no one can deny the qualifications of the Gazette for the position which it holds as a party organ.

THE MARKETS.

Butter—Butter remains scarce at 25c a pound.
Eggs—Eggs are scarce at thirty cents a dozen.
Potatoes—Potatoes are plentiful at 25c a bushel.
Hogs—The price of hogs dropped considerably during the past fortnight. Five cents a pound live is the top price paid now. The deliveries are fair.
Cattle—Best brings two and a half cents a pound.
Poultry—The supply is becoming more plentiful. Ducks and chickens bring ten cents a pound dressed, and turkeys thirteen cents a pound, dressed.
Hay—Large quantities of hay have been delivered during the past week. The price ranges from eight to fourteen dollars a ton. Green feed brings from five to nine dollars a ton.
Oats—Oats are being delivered in fairly large quantities. The price ranges from eighteen to twenty-three cents a bushel.
Wheat—Considerable wheat has been brought in during the past week. The price ranges from 40 to 50c a bushel. Feed wheat brings 30c a bushel.

HORSE HILLS

A social and concert are to be held at the Horse Hills schoolhouse on the 26th inst. A good programme is being arranged. All are welcome.
The people of Belmont are holding their annual concert on Friday, the 11th.

McLay Bros., of Poplar Lake, are busily engaged hauling coal to Edmonton from their mine at Clover Bar.

Skating is the most popular sport with the young folks. Good long evenings, with plenty of moonlight add greatly to the enjoyment.

Threshing has at last finished for the season. The incessant rattle of the threshing machine has given place to the loud rumbling of the wagons on the hard frozen roads. The yield this fall was a little below the average.

Muskrat trapping is becoming quite an important industry in this district. Many of the young folks are engaged in the business, for it is remunerative. During the mild spell of last week, a great number of rats could be seen prowling about on terra firma, where they were speedily captured by their biped enemies.

A serious accident befell Jas. McCarty last week while he was horseback riding. On his way to the Beaver Hills, to go deer hunting, when his horse accidentally slipped and fell, throwing him onto the hard frozen ground, and dislocating his right shoulder. He was taken home from the Fort and the broken animal.

No church services are being held here for over two months and we are becoming clamorous for the good Christian teaching of the several preachers who have in the past ministered to the flock at Horse Hills. Here is a good opportunity for mission work, which, if neglected, might have a very serious effect upon the morals of the people in the community.

ALBERTA COLLEGE

The Alberta College has temporary quarters in the first floor of the new Masonic building on Second Street. The rooms are large airy and bright and the building is electric lighted throughout. The main entrance opens onto Second Street. On entering, to the right is the principal's private office and a hallway extends from it the whole length of the building and along the right side. The doors of the various rooms open onto this hallway, which also serves as a cloakroom for the men. The front room, which is 20x20, is the principal's room and the classics department. The next room, 20x15, is the commercial and the next, 20x12, the typewriting and banking room. This room is also used for the night classes. A rear room, 20x10, is for English and Moderns. Opening off this room is the ladies' cloak room.

If you are at all interested in pretty china and hand-painted glass, you cannot spend ten minutes more pleasantly and profitably than by taking a look through our china department. We have this season made a very special effort to have a collection of china and glass which should possess sufficient artistic merit to please the most fastidious connoisseurs.

We believe our effort has been entirely successful, and we are now showing for the Christmas trade in this department, a class of goods which is usually found only in the larger stores in the great cities. You do not need to be an expert to recognize merit in these goods. Every piece has been selected for its individual and intrinsic beauty.

There is an aristocracy, so to speak, in china and glassware. We would not trouble you to read this announcement unless we had goods to show, you a class quite distinct from those shown in every store along the street.

On our tables are shown some lovely Wedgwood ware (the real thing, not the obvious imitations which are often offered as such) in jugs of various sizes, and sugar bowls and cream jugs. Cups and saucers and plates, in blue and gold, (real bullion gold, which will wear a lifetime), possess a delicate beauty which would excite anyone for breaking the tenth commandment.

In Copeland china (the real thing again) we have sets in white, with blue and gold stripes, very handsome, at $25 to $75. In Limoges china we have tea sets in rich and dainty designs at $10 to $16; also a large stock in this ware, which may be bought separately—cups and saucers, plates of various sizes, salad bowls, platters, etc.

In fancy Bavarian china, we have a very interesting collection of odd pieces, in various colorings and very handsome decorations, such as salad bowls, cake plates, bon-bons, biscuit jars, chocolate jugs, etc. Prices on these will strike you as low.

In cut glass, we are showing some beautiful productions in decanters, spirit jugs, vinegar and oil bottles, carafes, and other articles, all cut from the plain bowl, with cut neck and stopper, at $2, to a magnificent, massive, sparkling, full-cut bottle, at $15.

We have said nothing about ordinary decorated dinner and tea sets, toilet sets, etc. That is another story.

Alberta College to Edmonton, and was confident of its usefulness. Mayor Short's remarks were received with applause throughout. Miss Edith Webster then gave an excellent violin solo, La Conquerrante. Well merited applause greeted the rendering of the solo. A. C. Rutherford, M. L. A., Strathcona, was next called upon. In naming the college Alberta, he was pleased that the word was to be perpetuated in such an excellent institution as he was confident the college would prove to be. He congratulated the college on having at its head Principal Riddell, and hoped that the college would make its influence felt all over Alberta. He intimated the Northwest Territories' high and public school systems, and paid a compliment to the enthusiasm of the teachers. Mr. Rutherford explained, on previous request, the legislation passed at the last session of the House, for the establishment of a university. The Dominion government would give it a very liberal grant, amounting to $1,000,000. The first convocation would be composed of university graduates of British universities. They will elect the Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor. The bill provides for a senate and teaching staff selected from those who may enroll themselves at the commencement. Other colleges will vary similar to that of Toronto. The university will be able to receive endowments from private individuals. Men and women will be on an equal footing in the college. The university will be situated at the site of the Territorial capital, when the Territories are formed into a province. Mr. Rutherford closed his remarks by wishing Alberta College abundant success. A piano solo by V. W. Barford was followed by an address by Rev. H. A. Gray, who intimated that he anticipated much for the future of this country and he rejoiced at its establishment. A college course is a great benefit, not from what it teaches, but for the general effect on our minds. Life can only be properly enjoyed by the development of our intellectual faculties. A few words were addressed to the first students of the college. He was pleased that music, the only art we carry with us from this world, was given a prominent place in the curriculum, and again wished Alberta College Godspeed and many blessings. A solo, The Nightingale Song, was sung by Miss Edith Webster, with great effect and won the hearty applause of the large gathering. Mr. J. B. Mills, Strathcona, delivered a beautiful speech. He was pleased that Alberta College was starting under such favorable circumstances. When the college was first spoken of, he thought it would be a long time coming, but he was very agreeably surprised. Principal Riddell comes well recommended. With such an able principal, with the enthusiasm of the town at his back, nothing can keep the college back from a highly successful career. Edmonton and Strathcona have exceedingly fine high schools, and it is an excellent thing that Alberta College is now established. He hoped the college students will cultivate those attributes which make a man indeed. Games and many sports should be encouraged. The foundations of the college cannot be laid too deep or too broad. He closed his remarks by wishing Alberta College Godspeed. Miss Edith Webster then rendered an excellent violin solo, which was followed by an address by John A. McDougall. Mr. McDougall, at some length, referred to the early days in the Northwest, the great lone land. He made an extensive contrast between then and now. The tide has now turned. The call was first for public schools, then for high schools, and now for colleges. It was gratified that the Methodist in Edmonton had risen to the occasion. It marked a new epoch in the history of Edmonton and district. It was fitting that Edmonton Methodists should establish the first college. Many thought it premature, but the number of students now enrolled proved that the time was opportune. The college should be given all assistance. He hoped that the students would always take a kindly interest in their Alma Mater. The next number was a splendid solo by Miss Edith Webster, with Miss Edith Webster and V. W. Barford as accompanists. Mr. Barford also acted as accompanist throughout the evening. The chairman, H. C. Taylor, then briefly recounted the steps taken to establish the college and then called upon Principal Riddell. The principal was received with applause as he rose to speak. He was pleased with the large audience which showed the sympathy and appreciation of the community. This college is only a national institution in that it is under the control of the Methodist Church. They elect the Board of Management. Edmonton's college, which city now affords facilities for higher education. This is a great blessing and he hoped that through time other similar institutions would come to Edmonton. His ideal was that then all the colleges should be linked into one great university. He spoke of the liberal scholarship scheme, taking students from all over the empire to the great university of Oxford, and thus uniting together with intellectual bonds the great British Empire. It is necessary that a student develop himself physically as well as mentally and morally. In Winnipeg ninety-five per cent of the students attending the colleges are from outlying districts not favored with high schools. Alberta College now has twenty-five students. It is taking very many branches of the school work. He was glad that two Galicians were taking regular lessons. Education is necessary in order that we may leave our impression on future ages. He believed that the moral nature of students should be cultivated to a greater degree, and thus have hearts that feel and souls on earth alone. The sympathy and help of the people were required to build up at Edmonton, Alberta College, a great and everlasting monument to the intellectuality of the people of our city. The meeting then closed with the singing of the national anthem.

A Novel Suggestion for Christmas.

We know that many of the good people about us are intending patronising us for Xmas photos—many have already told us.

Just Suppose.

(and this is improbable, though possible) that the finishing of the new studio is further delayed, and we find that, by the time we are all settled and ready to take those photos for you, there would be insufficient time to turn the work out and DO IT PROPERLY, what are you going to do?

Let Us Solve the Problem.

We are getting a number of neat cards printed, on which appears a note—a promissory note in fact—by signing your name to which you agree to forward your photo as soon as finished. Also there appears the usual Xmas greeting, and there's the point. You wish your friends the best of cheer at Christmas, don't you? The very novelty of the thing will make that friend smile, the reluctant anticipation will make that smile hold, and the realization will cement it there. Every little helps, you know.

Follow this suggestion and you will be pleased, your friends will be delighted, and we shall be happy too, so everything will be lovely.

You can get the cards at the studio in good time. Await announcement of opening.
